

Website

The Website of the Beaubassin-est Rural Community offers important documents of the municipality, such as minutes of public meetings as well as adopted By-Laws, which also includes the rural plan. The site includes the section "What's new?" with the municipality's press releases.

The Website also offers a Survey with a question for the population and provides a list of organizations, facilities as well as companies in the region, among others.